To fundraise for Carrickmacross Cancer Society, we ask all fundraisers to agree to the following disclaimer which should be signed for each fundraising EVENT.

I/We confirm that we have read the attached "Fundraising Agreement" and duly noted its contents.

We wish you to note that Carrickmacross Cancer Society insurance does not cover this fundraising event. In particular, it does not cover loss, damage to harm to any person organising, assisting with or participating in the fundraising event or to the property of any such person or any other person. Whether the fundraising event involves use of public parks, public areas or private property, Carrickmacross Cancer Society does not accept any responsibility for the damage that may arise from or be caused (directly or indirectly) by this fundraising event. We recommend strongly that event organisers seek independent insurance advice prior to organising any event.

To the fullest extent allowed by law, the Event Organisers agree to:

- Release Carrickmacross Cancer Society from any claims and demand of any kind arising from or related, directly or indirectly, to this fundraising event; AND
- Indemnify and hold harmless Carrickmacross Cancer Society from any and all liability resulting from loss, damage or injury of any kind and in any way connected, directly or indirectly, with this fundraising event.
